Dupree v. Mahone et al.
08 C 50010

To Whom it May Concern:

As new court appointed counsel for Mr. Dupree, he has indicated twice on March 21, 2008 and April 2, 2008, that he received an opened and empty envelope from our law firm. In each instance we packed the envelope with legal documents e.g. about 50 pages.

Please advise in writing if there were any problems with our mailing procedures, whether you can advise as to any information on the above or if we are misunderstanding anything. I have a current court order for filing an Amended Complaint on April 30, 2008. Therefore, please respond within one week, by April 15, 2008.

Sincerely,

Andrew J. Heinisch

Attorney-Client communications

To Whom it May Concern:

As the attorney representing Cedric Dupree in the above litigation, the Pontiac prison facility was gracious enough to grant telephone access to me to communicate with Mr. Dupree considering the extensive distance between my office and Pontiac correctional facility. However, our phone call was prematurely interrupted by a correctional officer about 15 minutes into the conversation whom I overheard indicated something to the effect that he did not have a reason for being on the phone. This is despite the promise for at least 30 minutes, and that this was a legal call.

Due to the interruption we were unable to complete the initial interview and as such I would ask that Mr. Dupree be allowed to call me again on a secure unmonitored line. I understand that he does not have telephone privileges to call me otherwise other than a specially scheduled event initiated by me.

If I can not get reasonable access to Mr. Dupree, I intent to file an appropriate motion in Federal Court for an appropriate order.

While cognizant of the prison's needs, I do look forward to cooperating with you so that I do have reasonable access
